LOCKER AGREEMENT (ARC)

		Date:
1. Membership Type:
☐ Faculty/Staff/Retiree	☐ Faculty/Staff/Retiree Family	☐ Student Family
☐ Alumni	☐ Affiliate	☐ Associate/Parkland Associate
☐ Student (summer member	rships only) 🔲 Undergraduate	☐ Graduate
2. Membership Information	: :
Name:		UIN #:
Address:
City / State / Zip:
Phone:	E-mail:
3. Locker Rental Options:	☐ Half Locker: $30	☐ Full Locker: $48
4. For Rental Period:	☐ Summer (6/1 - 7/31)
5. For Rental Purposes:	☐ ARC Locker #:
6. I have read and agree to t	he locker issuance agreement	initial
All lockers within Campus Recreation fa	All questions concerning locker rental shoul acilities are the property of Campus Recreation and the	d be directed to Member Services.  The University of Illinois and are subject to applicable to appli
Please read the following statement.  All lockers within Campus Recreation far University and Campus Recreation policy.  Use of a locker by a person other than to assumes no obligation to do so. Following and regulations, be considered abandon and regulations, campus Recreation is not responsible for the security of the items vacated from long value will not be stored nor made avants.  To claim removed locker contents, if appless.	All questions concerning locker rental shoul acilities are the property of Campus Recreation and the cies. Campus Recreation reserves the right to alter the own it is issued is forbidden. Misuse of a locker medicated will be vacated. Although efforts wing the established renewal dates, all remaining contented property and disposed of accordingly. For lost or missing items, either before or after clearant ockers. Personal hygiene products will not be stored of	the University of Illinois and are subject to applicable e policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. It is also lead to termination of locker privileges or membership. It is made to store items for 7 days, Campus Recreation ents will, in accordance with established University rules are of a locker. Campus Recreation will not guarantee for made available for retrieval. Items deemed to have little or
Please read the following statement.  All lockers within Campus Recreation far University and Campus Recreation polic.  Use of a locker by a person other than to a All lockers not renewed or returned by the assumes no obligation to do so. Following and regulations, be considered abandon to Campus Recreation is not responsible for the security of the items vacated from lono value will not be stored nor made average.  To claim removed locker contents, if apples.	All questions concerning locker rental should acilities are the property of Campus Recreation and the cies. Campus Recreation reserves the right to alter the power of the date indicated will be vacated. Although efforts wang the established renewal dates, all remaining content and property and disposed of accordingly. For lost or missing items, either before or after clearant ockers. Personal hygiene products will not be stored callable for retrieval. plicable, members should visit Member Services. A property and disposed of accordingly.	the University of Illinois and are subject to applicable e policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. It is also lead to termination of locker privileges or membership. It is made to store items for 7 days, Campus Recreation ents will, in accordance with established University rules are of a locker. Campus Recreation will not guarantee for made available for retrieval. Items deemed to have little or
Please read the following statement.  All lockers within Campus Recreation far University and Campus Recreation police.  Use of a locker by a person other than to assumes no obligation to do so. Following and regulations, be considered abandon to Campus Recreation is not responsible for the security of the items vacated from lower no value will not be stored nor made available.  Locker rentals are non-refundable.  Locker ROOM USAGE AND GUIDEL  A. It is recommended that facility users no for lost, stolen, or damaged personal presentation of the compused for daily use after Campus Recreation will not be held accompused to the contents with unauthorized locks will be concerned.	All questions concerning locker rental shoul acilities are the property of Campus Recreation and the cies. Campus Recreation reserves the right to alter the work of the date indicated will be vacated. Although efforts wing the established renewal dates, all remaining content property and disposed of accordingly. For lost or missing items, either before or after clearant ockers. Personal hygiene products will not be stored callable for retrieval. Policable, members should visit Member Services. A publicable, members should visit Member Services. A publicable into the facilities. The University of operty.  INES/POLICIES:  It bring valuables into the facilities. The University of operty.  Illy basis; however, contents and locks must be removed some closing hours. Those locks remaining on the daily locuntable for the cost of any personal locks removed for disposed of immediately.	the University of Illinois and are subject to applicable e policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. The policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. The policies governing the use of locker privileges or membership. The policies are locker of days, Campus Recreation ints will, in accordance with established University rules are of a locker. Campus Recreation will not guarantee for made available for retrieval. Items deemed to have little or thoto ID is required to retrieve items.  Tillinois and Campus Recreation cannot be held responsible fred each day by the close of the facility. No locks are allowed ckers will be considered unauthorized and removed. From Campus Recreation lockers. All items removed from
Please read the following statement.  All lockers within Campus Recreation far University and Campus Recreation policy.  Use of a locker by a person other than to assumes no obligation to do so. Following and regulations, be considered abandon Campus Recreation is not responsible for the security of the items vacated from lower no value will not be stored nor made available.  Locker rentals are non-refundable.  Locker ROOM USAGE AND GUIDEL  A. It is recommended that facility users no for lost, stolen, or damaged personal properties.  Non-rental lockers may be used on a day on lockers designated for daily use after Campus Recreation will not be held according to the control of the control	All questions concerning locker rental shoul acilities are the property of Campus Recreation and the cies. Campus Recreation reserves the right to alter the property of the concerning the concerning the concerning the date indicated will be vacated. Although efforts wing the established renewal dates, all remaining content and property and disposed of accordingly. For lost or missing items, either before or after clearant ackers. Personal hygiene products will not be stored callable for retrieval. Policable, members should visit Member Services. A publicable, members should visit Member Services. A publicable, into the facilities. The University of operty.  INES/POLICIES:  to bring valuables into the facilities. The University of operty. Government of the cost of any personal locks must be removed to coming hours. Those locks remaining on the daily locuntable for the cost of any personal locks removed for the cost	the University of Illinois and are subject to applicable e policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. The policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. The policies governing the use of locker privileges or membership. The policies is a policy locker privileges or membership. The policy lockers will, in accordance with established University rules are of a locker. Campus Recreation will not guarantee for made available for retrieval. Items deemed to have little or thoto ID is required to retrieve items.  The policy lockers will be considered unauthorized and removed. The policy lockers will be considered unauthorized and removed from the policy lockers. All items removed from the removed and disposed of accordingly.
Please read the following statement.  All lockers within Campus Recreation fare University and Campus Recreation policy.  Use of a locker by a person other than to assumes no obligation to do so. Following and regulations, be considered abandon.  Campus Recreation is not responsible for the security of the items vacated from lower no value will not be stored nor made avance.  To claim removed locker contents, if apples to considered abandon with the security of the items vacated from lower no value will not be stored nor made avance.  Locker rentals are non-refundable.  Locker ROOM USAGE AND GUIDEL  A. It is recommended that facility users nor for lost, stolen, or damaged personal presental lockers may be used on a day on lockers designated for daily use after Campus Recreation will not be held accompused to the lockers with unauthorized locks will be concluded the lockers are not transferable to another.  All personal items must be stored entire.	All questions concerning locker rental should acilities are the property of Campus Recreation and the cies. Campus Recreation reserves the right to alter the property of the date indicated will be vacated. Although efforts wing the established renewal dates, all remaining content and property and disposed of accordingly. For lost or missing items, either before or after clearant ockers. Personal hygiene products will not be stored callable for retrieval. Policable, members should visit Member Services. A publicable, members should visit Member Services. A publicable, into the facilities. The University of operty.  INES/POLICIES:  to bring valuables into the facilities. The University of operty.  illy basis; however, contents and locks must be removed closing hours. Those locks remaining on the daily locuntable for the cost of any personal locks removed for the cost of any personal locks removed for the cost of any personal locks will be person.	the University of Illinois and are subject to applicable e policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. The policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. The policies governing the use of locker privileges or membership. The policies is a policy locker privileges or membership. The policy lockers will, in accordance with established University rules are of a locker. Campus Recreation will not guarantee for made available for retrieval. Items deemed to have little or thoto ID is required to retrieve items.  The policy lockers will be considered unauthorized and removed. The policy lockers will be considered unauthorized and removed from the policy lockers. All items removed from the removed and disposed of accordingly.
Please read the following statement.  All lockers within Campus Recreation fare University and Campus Recreation policy.  Use of a locker by a person other than to assumes no obligation to do so. Following and regulations, be considered abandon.  Campus Recreation is not responsible for the security of the items vacated from lower no value will not be stored nor made avance.  To claim removed locker contents, if apples to considered abandon with the security of the items vacated from lower no value will not be stored nor made avance.  Locker rentals are non-refundable.  Locker ROOM USAGE AND GUIDEL  A. It is recommended that facility users nor for lost, stolen, or damaged personal presental lockers may be used on a day on lockers designated for daily use after Campus Recreation will not be held accompused to the lockers with unauthorized locks will be concluded the lockers are not transferable to another.  All personal items must be stored entire.	All questions concerning locker rental should acilities are the property of Campus Recreation and the cies. Campus Recreation reserves the right to alter the property of the date indicated will be vacated. Although efforts wing the established renewal dates, all remaining content and property and disposed of accordingly. For lost or missing items, either before or after clearant ockers. Personal hygiene products will not be stored callable for retrieval. Policable, members should visit Member Services. A publicable, members should visit Member Services. A publicable, into the facilities. The University of operty.  INES/POLICIES:  to bring valuables into the facilities. The University of operty.  illy basis; however, contents and locks must be removed closing hours. Those locks remaining on the daily locuntable for the cost of any personal locks removed for the cost of any personal locks removed for the cost of any personal locks will be person.	the University of Illinois and are subject to applicable e policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. The policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. The policies governing the use of locker privileges or membership. The policies are lead to termination of locker privileges or membership. The policy is a policy of the policy
Please read the following statement.  All lockers within Campus Recreation far University and Campus Recreation policated to the second of the second of the second of the security of the items vacated from long value will not be stored nor made available.  Locker rentals are non-refundable.  Locker ROOM USAGE AND GUIDEL  A. It is recommended that facility users no for lost, stolen, or damaged personal properties, stolen, or damaged personal properties.  Non-rental lockers may be used on a daron lockers designated for daily use after Campus Recreation will not be held according to the second of the	All questions concerning locker rental should acilities are the property of Campus Recreation and the cies. Campus Recreation reserves the right to alter the property of the date indicated will be vacated. Although efforts wing the established renewal dates, all remaining content and property and disposed of accordingly. For lost or missing items, either before or after clearant ockers. Personal hygiene products will not be stored callable for retrieval. Policable, members should visit Member Services. A publicable, members should visit Member Services. A publicable, into the facilities. The University of operty.  INES/POLICIES:  to bring valuables into the facilities. The University of operty.  illy basis; however, contents and locks must be removed closing hours. Those locks remaining on the daily locuntable for the cost of any personal locks removed for the cost of any personal locks removed for the cost of any personal locks will be person.	the University of Illinois and are subject to applicable e policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. The policies governing the use of lockers with appropriate notice. The policies governing the use of locker privileges or membership. The policies are lead to termination of locker privileges or membership. The policy is a policy of the policy

